9. "SAHRC" means the South African Human Rights Commission.

2. Introduction

Dire Wolf is committed to the observance of and compliance with the directives of the South African Constitution and national legislation which endorse the key principles of good corporate governance, transparency, and accountability.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 (PAIA) gives effect to carry out section 32 of the South African Constitution, which focuses on the right to access information i.e. everyone has the right of access to information held by the state or a private body to enforce a culture of transparency and accountability.

Section 51 of PAIA obliges private bodies (including Dire Wolf) to compile a manual to enable a person to obtain access to information held by such private body and stipulates the minimum requirements that the manual must comply with.

This Manual is published in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act (PAIA), 2 of 2000, and describes the type of records held by Dire Wolf and the procedures for data subjects to access that information.

As per Section 17 of the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA), 2013, a responsible party must maintain the documentation of all processing operations under its responsibility as referred to in section 14 or 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act.

The process of requesting information in terms of the Act is subjected to applicable legislative and/or regulatory requirements, and the applicable request forms are available as Annexures within this manual.

6. Protection of Personal Information

Dire Wolf is capturing, processing, storing, and communicating Personal Identifiable Information (PII) to perform its business functions. It is accountable and a responsible party in ensuring that the PII of a Data Subject is:

- processed lawfully, fairly, and transparently.
- processed only for the purposes for which it was collected for.
- will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless consent is provided.
- is accurate and kept up to date and will not be kept for longer than necessary.
- processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles; this includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that Personal Information, in both physical and electronic form, are subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, processed, and communicated.

- processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects, where applicable.

7. Rights of Data Subjects

Data subjects have the following rights:

- To be notified that their Personal Information is being collected.
- To be notified in the event of a data breach.
- To enquire whether Dire Wolf holds Personal Information about them, and to access that information. Any request for information must be handled in accordance with the provisions of this Manual.
- To request the correction or deletion of inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading, or unlawfully obtained personal information.
- To object to the use of their Personal Information and request the deletion of such Personal Identifiable Information. Deletion is, however, subject to the record keeping requirement of Dire Wolf as well as the national and international regulations and legislations to be adhered to.
- To object to the processing of Personal Information for purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications.
- To complain to the Information Regulator regarding an alleged infringement of any of the rights protected under POPI and to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged noncompliance with the protection of his, her or its personal information.

8. Information security measures

Dire Wolf is committed to protect the integrity and confidentiality of personal information in its possession and under its control, by the implementation of a security strategy that includes technical and organisational measures. These include a risk management framework to continuously guide control selection and implementation as well as assessing the effectiveness thereof. The security controls are implemented and monitored as part of the Information Security Management Systems, guided by the Information Security Charter that stipulates the Information Security Objectives of the organisation. The Information Security Policy directs the rules, policies, and procedures to ensure data, systems, networks, and users within the organisation meet the security requirements.

9. Request for information

In terms of POPIA, a data subject may, upon providing proof of identity, request Dire Wolf to confirm the information being held about the data subject. The data subject may also request access to the information being held, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information. The data subject is allowed at any time, to object to the processing of information by Dire Wolf, unless legislation provides for such processing. The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record. To request the information, the prescribed form C must be completed, and the requester fee (if applicable) be paid to the Information Officer. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information. The Information Officer shall serve a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed. The request will be processed within a 30 (thirty) day period, and the outcome of the request will be communicated in writing. This period may be extended by an additional 30 days depending on the complexity of the request requirements.

The process to request information from Dire Wolf is as follows:

- The relevant prescribed form (Form C) must be used and completed in full to file a request for access to a record.
- If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
 - Please note that an application for access to information can be refused if the application does not comply with the requirements of PAIA. If access to a record or information is denied, the requestor will be notified, and adequate reasons for the refusal will be provided.
 - Should the requester not be satisfied with the decision of the Information Officer, the requester may apply to the court for relief. In terms of PAIA, the said application must be made within 180 days after the decision has been made by the Information Officer.
- Dire Wolf will require proof of identification of the data subject (requestor) or related third parties requesting information on behalf of the requestor for all requests.
- The successful completion and submission of the access request does not automatically allow the requestor access to the requested records.
- If access to a record/information is granted, the requestor will be notified, and an indication of the access fee (if any) will be provided.

10. Objection to the Processing of Personal Identifiable Information (PII)

Section 11 (3) of POPI and regulation 2 of the POPIA Regulations provides that a Data Subject may, at any time object to the Processing of his/her/its PII by following the process stipulated in this manual.

11. Request for correction or deletion of Personal Identifiable Information (PII)

Section 24 of POPI and regulation 3 of the POPI Regulations provides that a Data Subject may request for their Personal Information to be corrected/deleted in the prescribed form. To ensure the lawfulness and correctness of the data, the data subject may also request Dire Wolf to correct or delete personal information about the data subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of personal information about the data subject that the company is no longer authorised to retain in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.

12. Fees

Where an institution has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question. PAIA provides for two types of fees, namely a request fee and an access fee. This is a non-refundable administration fee paid by all requestors with the exclusion of personal requestors. It is paid before the request is considered. Where a requester sub/it's a request for access to information help by an institution on a person other than the requester his/self/herself, a request fee in the amount of R50-00 is payable up-front before the institution will further process the request received. This is paid by all requestors only when access is granted. This fee is intended to reimburse the private body for the costs involved in searching for a record and preparing it for delivery to the requestor. An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the Act, or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of Section 54(8) Dire Wolf may withhold a record until the request fee has been paid.
